HILO BASEBALLERS WIN.

Maui Sluggers Fight Hard Against a Losing Proposition.

Cleaner sports never came to Hilo, than the crowd of baseball boys from Maui, who crossed bats with an all Hilo nine at Hoolulu Park last Wednesday and come out at the little end of the horn. The Maui boys celebrated their defeat by offering three cheers for the Hilo baseball league. Their manner of receiving a good square drubbing at the hands of the Hilo boys went far toward healing the disappointment of the Hilo crowd over Weller's defeat of Socialist and Carter Harrison, Jr. Hilo wants to see more of the Maui boys and recognizes in them, not only men who can play ball, but men who know how to make personal sacrifices in behalf of good sport.

But this is how Hilo treated the Maui Athletic Association: Maui was defeated by a score of 7 to 4.

The game was one of the best ever played on Hawaiian soil. The people of Hilo do not realize what manner of ball players they have in the Hilo League. They can hold their own against talent from any city in the Island. The Maui team can win honors on a toss up with the crack team at Honolulu any day. The game Wednesday was a piece of poetry for amateurs.

Look at the record of the game as chronicled by official scorer, C. L. Clement. It is here:

Hilo runs 7; Maui 4. Brown struck out 12; Jackson 4. Hilo made four base hits, Maui three. Hilo took seven bases on balls, Maui six. There were no double plays. Time of game 1 hour and 50 minutes. Umpires Baldwin, Edmonds and Boeck.

The Hilo nine played good ball. In fact they had to do it to beat the visitors. Brown in the box was in perfect trim as the record shows. Spaulding was a little marvel behind the bat. Beers took the cake in phenomenal fielding. Supe on first base made but one error. Jack Easton who always plays in hard luck dislocated an elbow in making a slide at first base, hors de combat for the day. His place was taken by Ragsdale.

The visitors played an even game. The trouble with them seemed to be with the man in the box, who still felt the gyratory effect of the Kinau. The Maui boys would have put up a better game a day later.

The game has served as a stimulus for baseball in Hilo. The League will start on a new schedule of games in a few days and it is on the cards to go to Maui at the first opportunity and cross bats again with the Athletic Association.
